

Cradles

Mild Steel

- Steel cradles are used to support horizontal cylindrical storage tanks (single skinned, enclosed banded and double skinned)
- It is normal practise to weld the cradle to the tank
- A 1:50 slope is recommended for oil tanks
- A 1:30 slope is required for aviation fuel tanks
- Finish to match the tank.

